Funeral instructions

Do you wish your body to be:

Buried Cremated No preference

Does your spouse/partner wish their body to be:

Buried Cremated No preference

If you have any special instructions, we suggest you detail these in a separate note which is kept with your will.

Guardians

If you have any children who are under 18 years of age you may appoint Guardians to look after them in the event of your death (and your spouse/partner/civil partner). Please place contact details in the box below.

Name	Address

Gifts

Many people wish to make gifts of money or special items, these are known as "legacies".

You should now consider any gifts you wish to make, please write details in the box below and attach an additional sheet if required.

Gift	Name	Address	Relationship to you

The residue of your estate

You must now consider who will receive the "residue" of your estate, which is what remains after your debts, taxes and any gifts listed above have been taken out. You can choose your spouse/partner/civil partner, your children, a charity or somebody else.

We have identified the three most common ways of dealing with the residue of an estate. Read them carefully and choose one which best suits you. If you are in doubt, let us know and we will advise you.

Select one only:

I wish to leave all the "residue" of my estate to my partner, but if he/she dies before me, to the people named overleaf.

I wish to leave all the "residue" of my estate to my partner, but if he/she dies before me, to the people named overleaf in the percentages indicated.

I wish to leave all the "residue" of my estate to the person(s) or organisations listed overleaf in the percentages indicated.
