What is this type of insurance?

Landlords insurance covers you against the cost of repairing or rebuilding your let property or replacing its contents owned by you, depending on which cover you choose.

If your let property is damaged or destroyed, repair and rebuilding costs quickly mount up. Replacing your furnishings can also be expensive, without landlords insurance you would have to cover these costs yourself. Landlords Insurance is designed to cover certain unforeseen events, but it doesn't cover everything.

You won't be covered for certain events, such as malicious acts, theft, escape of water, or breakage of glass prior to the commencement of the first tenancy, between lets, or where you are aware that the let property is not being lived in, unless you take precautions to safeguard your let property, as detailed in the General Conditions of the Policy Booklet
- ! You won't be covered for certain events, such as accidental damage (where chosen), malicious acts, theft or breakage of glass, if your let property is left unoccupied for more than 90 days, or for escape of water or frost damage, if your let property is left unoccupied for more than 40 days.
