Agreement to assign windfalls to charity

Note: This Agreement does not apply to you if:

- (ii) you have already entered into an agreement in either the same or similar terms with the Society and have held shares in the Society (other than permanent interest bearing shares) continuously since the date the account for which you were then applying was opened or
- (iii) you are, in respect of the account for which you are now applying, in one of the other groups of people that the Society has decided should be exempt.

Where more than one of you is signing this form, the above Note and, if applicable, the rest of this Agreement apply to each of you separately.

1. I agree with the Society that I will assign to the selected charity my right to receive any windfall benefits. I authorise the Society and any successor to pass any windfall benefits direct to the selected charity (or to any other registered charity which the selected charity may nominate) without giving any notice to me. I understand that the selected charity will have the benefit of this Agreement, and that neither it nor the Society will release me from it or vary its terms, even if the Society decides at some stage in the future that new shareholding members generally will not be required to enter into similar agreements. I authorise the Society to give the selected charity any information about me and any account that I have with the Society (either now or in the future) but only if the selected charity reasonably needs it for any purpose arising out of this Agreement. I understand that if the Society no longer exists following a merger with another building society, this Agreement will still apply between me and the other society.
2. In this Agreement:
 - (a) "selected charity" means the Skipton Building Society Charitable Foundation or, if it ceases to be registered as a charity, any other

The expression “windfall benefits” does not include either (i) the right to have savings in a share account with the Society replaced by savings in a deposit account with the successor or (ii) if I am in one of the groups of people that the Society has decided may keep some or all benefits†, those benefits which the Society has decided I may keep; and
- (c) “successor” means any company or other corporate body to which the Society transfers its business under Section 97 of the Building Societies Act 1986 (or under any provision which amends or replaces it).

†Details of these groups and (where applicable) the shorter periods that apply and the benefits that may be kept are available from the Society. The number and composition of the groups may be changed from time to time but no change will apply retrospectively.

Additional Information

¹Scheme responsible for the protection of your eligible deposit

Your eligible deposit is covered by a statutory Deposit Guarantee Scheme. If insolvency of your bank, building society or credit union should occur, your eligible deposits would be repaid up to £85,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

²General limit of protection

If a covered deposit is unavailable because a bank, building society or credit union is unable to meet its financial obligations, depositors are repaid by a Deposit Guarantee Scheme. This repayment covers at maximum £85,000 per bank, building society or credit union. This means that all eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up in order to determine the coverage level. If, for instance, a depositor holds a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £20,000, he or she will only be repaid £85,000.

In some cases eligible deposits which are categorised as 'temporary high balances' are protected above £85,000 for six months after the amount has been credited or from the moment when such eligible deposits become legally transferable. These are eligible deposits connected with certain events including:

- (a) certain transactions relating to the depositor's current or prospective only or main residence or dwelling;
- (b) a death, or the depositor's marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, dismissal, redundancy or invalidity;
- (c) the payment to the depositor of insurance benefits or compensation for criminal injuries or wrongful conviction.

More information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>.

³Limit of protection for joint accounts

In case of joint accounts, the limit of £85,000 applies to each depositor.

However, eligible deposits in an account to which two or more persons are entitled as members of a business partnership, association or grouping of a similar nature, without legal personality, are aggregated and treated as if made by a single depositor for the purpose of calculating the limit of £85,000.

⁴Reimbursement

The responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme is the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, 10th Floor Beaufort House, 15 St Botolph, London, EC3A 7QU, Tel: 0800 678 1100 or 020 7741 4100, Email: ICT@fscs.org.uk. It will repay your deposits (up to £85,000) within 10 working days from 1 January 2021 to 31 December 2023; and within 7 working days from 1 January 2024 onwards, save where specific exceptions apply.

Continued overleaf

Where the FSCS cannot make the repayable amount available within 7 working days, it will, from 1 June 2016 until 31 December 2023, ensure that you have access to an appropriate amount of your covered deposits to cover the cost of living (in the case of a depositor which is an individual) or to cover necessary business expenses (in the case of a depositor which is not an individual or a large company) within 5 working days of a request.

If you have not been repaid within these deadlines, you should contact the Deposit Guarantee Scheme since the time to claim reimbursement may be barred after a certain time limit. Further information can be obtained under <http://www.fscs.org.uk>.

Other important information

In general, all retail depositors and businesses are covered by Deposit Guarantee Schemes. Exceptions for certain deposits are stated on the website of the responsible Deposit Guarantee Scheme. Your bank, building society or credit union will also inform you of any exclusions from protection which may apply. If deposits are eligible, the bank, building society, or credit union shall also confirm this on the statement of account.
